

15 BEST THINGS TO DO IN SOPOT

An In-Depth Guide to Poland's Premier Seaside Resort

1. SOPOT PIER (MOLO)

Stretching an impressive 511 meters into the Bay of Gdansk, this historic landmark is Europe's longest wooden pier. Originally constructed in the 19th century, it features a bustling marina at its tip. Walking down the pier offers sweeping maritime views and exposure to high concentrations of health-beneficial iodine in the air.

2. CROOKED HOUSE (KRZYWY DOMEK)

Built in 2004, this architectural marvel looks like it was plucked straight from a fairytale or a surrealist painting. Its warped, wavy walls were inspired by the whimsical fairy-tale illustrations of Jan Marcin Szancer. Located on the main strip, it houses modern shopping facilities, local offices, bars, and cafes.

3. MONCIAK (BOHATEROW MONTE CASSINO)

This completely pedestrianized boulevard is the social and cultural heartbeat of Sopot. Stretching from the main train station down to the pier, Monciak is densely packed with fine dining establishments, boutique shops, lively bars, and street performers, acting as the epicenter of the town's famous nightlife.

4. SOPOT LIGHTHOUSE (LATARNIA MORSKA)

Constructed in 1903 as part of a grand balneological hospital complex, this elegant brick tower was later converted into an official marine navigation light. Visitors can climb the narrow spiral staircase to the observation deck at the top, which rewards climbers with magnificent, unobstructed views over the pier, beach, and city.

5. SOPOT BEACH (PLAZA SOPOT)

Renowned as one of the cleanest and most wide-reaching sandy beaches on the Polish Baltic coast, it spans over 4 kilometers. The calm waters make it highly popular for swimmers and families, while beachside bars, deckchair rentals, and volleyball courts cater to summer sunbathers and sports fans alike.

6. FOREST OPERA (OPERA LESNA)

Hidden within a natural valley inside the lush forest surrounding Sopot, this covered open-air amphitheater boasts world-class acoustics. Since its inception in 1909, it has hosted massive operatic performances and international music events, most notably the legendary annual Sopot International Song Festival.

7. SOPOT MUSEUM (MUZEUM SOPOTU)

Housed in a spectacular, historic neoclassical villa built in 1903 right by the beach, this museum offers an intimate look at the historical golden age of Sopot. The ground floor displays meticulously restored period interiors of a wealthy family, while upper floors host rotating exhibitions on the resort's local history.

8. AQUAPARK SOPOT

A premium indoor and outdoor water park complex offering recreation for all seasons. It features complex multi-level waterslides, a fast wild river simulation, whirlpools, and dedicated kids' play zones. Adults can also take advantage of the expansive sauna world and professional spa facilities on-site.

9. NORTHERN PARK (PARK POLNOCNY)

This serene, heavily wooded park stretches parallel to the beach away from the bustling city center. It was thoroughly revitalized to include dedicated paths for inline skaters and cyclists, manicured footpaths, small wooden bridges over natural streams, and a collection of informative nature plaques.

10. SOUTHERN PARK (PARK POLUDNIOWY)

Designed in an elegant historic spa style, this park sits adjacent to the main square. It is famous for its collection of unique saline graduation towers, which release a healthy aerosol of thermal mineral water. Beautifully arranged flower beds, historic fountains, and quiet benches make it a peaceful oasis.

11. SOPOT HIPPODROME (HIPODROM SOPOT)

Spanning over 40 hectares with gorgeous views of the sea, this historic equestrian venue dates back to the late 19th century. It remains an active hub for international horse racing, carriage driving tournaments, and jumping competitions, while also providing year-round horseback riding lessons for locals.

12. FISHERMEN'S WHARF (PRZYSTAN RYBACKA)

A charming, working harbor slice located at the southern end of the beach. Here, traditional wooden fishing boats are pulled directly onto the sand. Visitors can purchase fresh or smoked fish caught that very morning from local stalls, providing a rustic contrast to Sopot's luxury lifestyle.

13. GRODZISKO

An open-air archaeological museum located on a forested ridge where an actual early medieval fortified settlement stood between the 8th and 10th centuries. It features meticulously reconstructed wooden palisades, huts, and workshops, often hosting live historical reenactments, archery, and old-world craft workshops.

14. SOPOT SPA HOUSE (DOM ZDROJOWY)

This massive, multi-functional modern complex sits proudly at the entrance to the wooden pier. It echoes the historical architectural style of Sopot's old grand hotels. Inside, you will find a state-of-the-art state spa, high-end restaurants, conference facilities, an art gallery, and a public mineral water pump room.

15. SIERAKOWSKI MANOR (DWOREK SIERAKOWSKICH)

Dating back to 1795, this charming, classicistic property is one of the oldest surviving residential structures in Sopot. Now run by the Society of Friends of Sopot, it serves as a sophisticated cultural parlor, hosting weekly chamber music concerts, literary evenings, poetry readings, and fine art exhibitions.
